

- Home
- iFAQ
- Smart
- Facilitating Commerce
- Assignment Detroit: The Drinking Game

sludgeSCAM went all the way to the top, would the last person out of Detroit please...never mind, and Mitch Albom says Cleveland is special and beautiful in its own way

By Woodward's Friend

July 12, 2010

Guy with Mullet not super-criminal genius

Turns out sludgeSCAM wasn't Guy with Mullet James "JR" Rosendall's idea. We all wanted to believe legitimate business Synagro was innocent. If we can't trust sludge haulers to be upstanding, what hope is there for this world? But, according the Freep, Rosendall was just an errand boy. The real masterminds were senior Synagro execs like Pam Racey. Sadly, that makes sense. Rosendall spends most of his time styling that luscious mullet, not hatching bribery schemes. He did find time to drop off the money. And go to strip clubs and Las Vegas with Derrick Miller and the Milton boys. Stay classy, Team Kilpatrick. (Freep)